GENERAL RULES

(“Exhibit” refers to the article or animal. “Exhibitor” refers to the entrant.)

1. Entries are open to everyone. Entrants do not need to be residents of Madison County.
2. Entry tags must be issued from the Madison County Fair or the exhibit will not be allowed to compete for premiums.
3. Management and/or Board of Directors reserves the right to accept entries after closing.
4. Management and/or Board of Directors reserves the right to alter classifications and premiums for any recognized breeds of livestock or other exhibits at their discretion.
5. Management and/or Board of Directors reserves the right to reject any exhibit if it is objectionable, requires an excessive amount of space, or if the capacity of the department has been reached.
6. Attendants at exhibits and concessions must be neatly attired and will be required to conduct themselves in a quiet and orderly manner.
7. All pets must be on a leash.
8. Dogs or pet animals kept around exhibits or concessions will not be permitted to run at large.
9. No persons or exhibitors will be permitted to distribute printed or advertising matter.
10. The use of gongs, bells, or other noise instruments for the purpose of attracting attention is prohibited on the fairgrounds.
11. Articles entered in the fair in previous years are NOT eligible for entry again.
12. Every article entered must be entirely the work of the exhibitor with the exception of quilting on quilts.
13. Superintendent retains the right to move an entry into a different class if the original class entered will not have enough entries for competition to exist.

JUDGING RULES

(Prior to judging, each superintendent will inspect all exhibits of his department to determine if they are entered in the class they should compete in. If the superintendent and exhibitor cannot reach an agreement as to the classification- it should be reported to the management. Classification will then be made by a committee appointed by the manager- and that decision will be final.

1. No director of this fair shall act as judge in any class, not shall any exhibitor act as a judge in any class.
2. If there is any question during the judging as to the regularity of any entry or the right of an exhibitor to compete in any class, the judge shall report immediately to the superintendent of the department for adjustment.
3. Awards will be made according to the merits of the exhibit.
4. The judge may disqualify or award second or third premiums at his discretion.
5. Anyone attempting to influence the judges, in any manner will forfeit all awards and be excluded for all competition and exhibition.
6. No one will be permitted in the Home Arts Building during judging except the Awards Committee, the Officers of the Fair, and the necessary attendants.
7. The judges will be expected, if called upon, to give reasons for the decision, embracing the value and desirable qualities of the animals or articles to which the awards were made.
8. All protests must be made in writing, setting forth grounds for protest.
9. Judges decisions are final.

ANIMAL RULES

1. No diseased or inferior stock or articles will be assigned space on the fairgrounds for exhibition.
2. Exhibitors must in all cases be the bona fide owners of the animals or articles exhibited by them, except where otherwise specified.
3. A transfer of ownership for the purposes of exhibiting will debar any animal or article and operate against the awarding of premiums offered by the Madison County Fair.
4. Trucks and trailers must be parked in the space designated by the General Livestock Superintendent and cannot be parked in the vicinity of the livestock buildings.
5. No animal or article may compete in more than one class or for more than one trophy, except as one pair, group, or championship. (Special rules and exceptions may apply for each department.)

EXHIBITOR RULES

1. All exhibits must be in place as specified in the general rules of each department.
2. No exhibits will be released before MONDAY, AUGUST 21st at 9 AM.
3. Exhibitors having space assigned to them will not be permitted to change to another location without having obtained permission from the superintendent of the department under penalty of the forfeiture of premiums.
4. Articles sent by mail, freight, or express must be prepared.
5. No exhibit will be accepted if carrier charges have not been paid.
6. Exhibits entered in the fair in previous years are not eligible for entry again.
7. Exhibitors may make up to 5 entries in each class as desired unless otherwise specified by department. Some departments will only allow less.
8. No exhibitor will be allowed more than two (2) premiums in any one class.
9. Exhibitors making entries and not exhibiting shall forfeit all entry fees.
10. Ample light is furnished in all buildings. If additional light or power is required, all wiring and power must be furnished by the consumer and wired under supervision of the fair electrician. Any cost for additional light and power will be paid by the exhibitor.
11. Exhibits winning premiums in the 4-H Club Crop Projects of Future Farmers Crop Division shall not be eligible for entry in the open class,
12. Sales of exhibits may be made for delivery at the close of the fair.
13. No exhibit may be removed before the closing day of the fair unless directed by department superintendents.
14. If exhibits are removed from exhibit prior to pick up day and time, premium(s) forfeited.
15. Any exhibit not picked up from the Home Arts, Photography, Fine Arts, and Horticulture at closing will become property of the Madison County Fair and will be disposed.

PREMIUM RULES

1. For premiums to be awarded a competition must exist.
2. Competition is a contest of supremacy between 2 (two) or more animals, projects, or articles owned by separate exhibitors.
3. Two exhibits entered by the same person OR household does not constitute a competition.
4. When a community interest in the ownership of animals or article is apparent in the judgement of the Board, competition will be considered to not exist although the actual ownership might be separate.
5. The Madison County Fair will not award a premium on any articles not specifically mentioned in the Premium List. Such articles may be accepted by the superintendent of the department of the exhibition.
6. The Judges' books shall be evidence of payment of premiums. Ribbons and cards are not accepted.
7. If found that a premium has been obtained by false evidence, misrepresentation, or a violation of the general (or special) rules governing the department, all premiums will be withheld.
8. Once entrants have collected and signed out entries and premium envelopes, Madison County is not responsible for lost, stolen, or unclaimed premium.
9. All premiums must be claimed within 30 days of the fair.
10. Any premium not picked up on AUGUST 21, 2023 will be available at the County Clerk's Office for 30 days. After 30 days, all premiums and prizes are considered forfeited and will be returned to the Madison County Fair Operations costs.

LIABILITY

1. The Madison County Fair will not be responsible for any loss or damage caused by strikes, riots, lockouts, or acts of God.
2. Each exhibitor will be responsible for any consequential loss, or damage done to, occasioned by, or arising from any animal or articles exhibited by them. Those shall indemnify the Madison County Fair against all legal proceedings in regard thereto.
3. The Madison County Fair will take reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of exhibits and property of every description entered for competition, display, or any other purpose while anywhere on the grounds that shall be subject to the control of the Madison County Fair.
4. The owners, themselves, must take the risk of exhibiting.
5. The Madison County Fair will in no case be responsible for any loss, damage, or injury of any property, article, animal, or person while the same are on the fairgrounds or any other time or place or be liable for any payment for damage, loss, or injury. Presentation of articles or animals for exhibition and entrance upon said grounds shall be deemed acceptance of the rule.
6. Exhibitors of animals, machinery in motion, and other exhibits are liable to occasional accidents, injury, or damage to persons coming in contact therewith.
7. Every exhibitor shall indemnify the Madison County Fair from and against all such claims and demands, costs, charges, and expenses which it may incur, suffer, or be put to, by reason of any exhibit not properly guarded therefrom. Presentation of entry or agreement or verbal or written concession shall be deemed acceptance of the rule.
8. Any exhibit not picked up on AUGUST 21, 2023 will be available at the County Clerk's Office for 30 days. After 30 days, all exhibits are considered forfeited.

The Madison County Fair does not carry insurance for theft or damage to personal property while it is on the fairgrounds and therefore does not assume any liability for same. While the fair personnel will exercise all reasonable precautions, any property displayed is done so at the owner's risk. Personal property is generally covered by one's homeowner's policy. Any additional insurance coverage must be obtained by the exhibitor.
